CITY ANALYST'S LABORATORY, 138, BATH STREET, GLASCOW, 13th Ma sh, 1891. FIRST QUARTERLY REPORT FOR 1891 ON ROBERT BROWN'S "FOUR CROWN" BLEND OF SCOTCH WHISKY. I have made a miunte and careful chemical analysis of a fair sample of several hundred casks of Robert Brown's" Four Crown" Blend of Scotch Whisky, taken by myself from the bonded

atores in which the casks are lying, and the result of my analysis indicates that it is a pure Whisky, which has been matured for a considerable period in Sherry Casks, and from its mild and agreeable flavour I am of opinion that it is a very fine blend of Scotch Whisky. THE reported settlement of the French should secure for their subjects in Eastern claim arising out of the recent riot and outrage at Michyang id Hupeh, if correct, conveys an instructive lesson for the Foreign Representatives in China, Only a very short time previously, in the same province, a frightful tragedy was coacted, the victims being two Protestant missionaries of Swedish nationality. These unfortunate men had offended no one, had injured no interest had insulted no religion, but they were nevertheless most brutally murdered by savage moh, hounded on by the . literati and encouraged, if not actually prompted, by the official class. This vile crime was argravated by a ferecious per. secution of all natives who had in any way assisted or been associated with the victims. The intention was apparent, and was indeed most distinctly stated, to effectually intimidate for the future any native from render ing any arrvice to the missionaries in that district. The officials not only refused to render satisfaction for the outrage, but left the bodies of the assassinated men for days exposed, and only at length very tardily restored them, in a state of indescribable disfigurement, to their friends. With a cold cynicism, peculiarly Chinese, the provincial officials calculated on the inability of the this cowardly, unprovoked, and grievous which she can avenge an injury done to her subjects by a semi-barbarous Power at once distant and hideproof. Hence they could afford to sneer at and treat with contempt her representative, who in this instance of a strong case held in a weak hand.

TIENTSIN.

As was leared, the bank of the Grand Conul broke last week, and the south plain is now covered to a depth, it is said, of about six inches more than in the similar flood of three years ago. Tientsin is completely surrounded by one vast sea, then, and a similar condition of suffering and in the eyes of the public at home and in the side of the Princess. If you look at almost death will confront us during the coming winter. It appears to be the general impression among lacter of a Tressury note, payable in gold, and the "commoners" that these breaks in the river banks are entirely due to carelessness and indifference, which charge, in view of known facts, worthy that in Holland relatively few gold coine

On the Duke of York's wedding day 1.500 cases of street accidents of a more or less severe character, and of fainting fits, &c., were treated by the ambalance men and nurses belonging to the t. John Ambulance Brigade.

Mrs. Myra Bradwell, wife of Judge Bradwell, of Chicago, was the first woman in the United States to apply for admission to the bar. Since her admission, she has worked by her husband's side, and has been of great assistance to him in his law practice. Her sen and daughter were also admitted to the bar when they reached suitable ages, and soon afterward the dan-chter marwell family is practising the profession.

"What'll become of you in the next world if you don't tell the truth P" asked a well-known magistrate of a small boy the other day. "Dunno whit'll happen to me in this world, let alone the next," gloomily responded the boy, and the maristrate wilted. This reminds us that when a similar question was asked by a magistrate in London, and the boy replied, "Don't know," the magistrate is reported to have said, "Quite correct; neither do L.

(MPEB) AL_QUARTO. MINGLISH AND CHINESE DIC'ינ'IONARY. -with-the-Punti-and-Mandarin-PRONUNCIATION.

An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands/unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, port, I and inscience generally, which the rapid advance China. of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best has now been principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the 1373 following facts are submitted for consideration --- . Chalmers Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-

It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages.

(the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. H. II. Joseph, Esq. Bartholomew's Mospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so had at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, air, yours truly, J. HILL." UTTERLY UNRIVALLED. UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry t appears that the benefit from using Keating's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a apecially severe one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of dt. Bartholomew's lospital. Since the operation the only means of relist is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is
